

BANGLADESH AIR FORCE MUSEUM

Bangladesh Air Force Museum was established on 17 Jun 1987 to preserve the glorious history of BAF. Initially the museum was located inside BAF Base Bashar, Dhaka Cantonment. Later on, to spread the reach of BAF Museum to all types of visitors, it was shifted to the present location on the Air Force Day, 28 September 2014.

All the 03 x aircraft used in OPERATION KILO FLIGHT (The very first formation of today's BAF during great liberation war of 1971) are displayed in this museum. Also, numbers of historic fixed wing aircraft, helicopters and RADARS are preserved to present the glory of BAF before the nation.
